BOOKING PROCEDURE

KARRALIKA SKI CLUB

Booking applications are to be made on the club's printed form. Please use a separate form for each period and enclose the tariff appropriate to the period requested.

Return your forms to:
The Booking Secretary
Karralika Ski Club Co-Op Ltd.
P.O. Box 57,
KILLARA, N.S.W. 2071

Application forms must be completed by a club member. Non-member lodge guests are required to be sponsored by a club member who will be responsible for their guests.

During peak accommodation periods members' bookings are limited to one week and members may nominate three (3) non-members to accompany them at the lodge to be regarded as priority bookings.

A ballot will be held to resolve any difficulties of booking allocations after considering the following priority list:

- Members
- Members and up to three guests
- Other non-member guests including members' spouse and children.

URGENT ENQUIRIES ONLY may be made by phoning the booking secretary.

WINTER BOOKINGS

Winter bookings open on the 1st March each year and for a period of one month members have priority. Outside this period bookings are allocated on availability of lodge space and a first come first served basis.

Winter bookings will not be confirmed prior to 1st April to allow the booking secretary to allocate bookings priorities for all members wishing to book during the month of March.

Weekend accommodation is limited and is only available to members and their accompanied guests.

CHILDREN

Children under five years are not permitted to stay in the lodge during the winter season. Children up to the age of 18 years are not encouraged to stay out of school holiday periods, and must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

SUMMER BOOKINGS

Summer bookings open on the 1st September each year and for a period of one month members have priority. Outside this period bookings are allocated on availability of lodge space and a first come first served basis.

Summer bookings may not be confirmed prior to the 1st November.

HOUSE DUTIES AND LODGE CAPTAIN

Before your stay you will be advised by the booking secretary of the name and phone number of your lodge captain. You should be sure to check your proposed arrival at the lodge with the lodge captain before departing for the lodge. House duties will be allocated by the lodge captain and all occupants of the lodge are obliged to do their share.

TARIFFS

Winter Tariffs includes bed linen, towels and food from the lodge food store. This includes an extensive range of tinned and basic foods. Perishable foods such as meat, milk, eggs, butter and bread are not included but may be purchased local from the shops in the Valley Centre during the winter months.

Summer Tariffs do not include bed linen, towels nor food from the lodge store. Food remaining in the store from the winter season may be used. The Lodge food stocks are replenished for the winter season, usually in May. Fresh food and other supplies can be purchased from Jindabyne.

RATES

Tariff rates are set by the Directors and are made up of Member, Concession, and Member's guest rates. A schedule of rates is published in the club newsletter prior to each booking period. During the summer months, group tariffs are available for parties wishing to fully book the lodge.

Tariff rates are applied on the following basis:

Member - A financial member of Karralika Ski Club Co-Op Ltd.

- The spouse or child (under 18 years) of a member.

Concession – The child of a member aged from 18 to 21 years.

Member Guest – A lodge guest sponsored by a club member whether accompanied or not accompanied.

Concession Rates -

Summer

Children under 5 years may stay at the lodge free of charge.

Children under 13 years may stay at the lodge for half the scheduled rate applicable.

Winter

All winter tariffs are subject to different rates throughout the winter season.

Details are published in the club newsletter prior to the winter season.

CANCELLATION OF BOOKINGS

If bookings are cancelled 21 days or more in advance of your first day of stay a cancellation fee will be deducted from the tariff to be refunded.

If bookings are cancelled with less than 21 days notice the full tariff will be forfeited except for the following:

- (a) The accommodation is re-let where the cancellation fee will be deducted from the tariff to be refunded.

The peak booking periods and cancellation fees will be published with the schedule of tariffs in the club newsletter prior to the winter booking period.
