Code of Conduct

Karralika is a club lodge rather than a commercial establishment, and brings together different people who all wish to enjoy their time in the mountains in their own way, so a few guidelines for when we're in the lodge:

- have regard to the lodge and its facilities, keep the lodge clean and tidy at all times, particularly the kitchen and common areas,
- if anything needs attention or fixing please report it to your lodge captain,
- have respect for other members and guests also staying in the lodge, maintaining quiet enjoyment for everyone,
- provide quietness in the bedroom areas, particular for people sleeping in the evenings and mornings, and
- complete your lodge duties as allocated by your lodge captain.
