

Email News Update – September 2012

Snow conditions remain great for Spring skiing, with the 2012 season reported as being the best for consistency and snow quality, and the best conditions for 12 years.

Extended Snow Season

Perisher has announced that it is now extending its 2012 Ski Season through to Friday 5th October. This effectively provides a full week's skiing from the start of the October long weekend. The lodge is currently fully available for this week commencing 29 September, so for some extended Spring skiing make a booking now!

The rates will be Shoulder 1, as follows:

Karralika Shoulder 1	Week (7 nights)	Long Weekend (2 nights)	Weekend (1 night)
Member	215	115	80
Concession	290	160	110
Non-member	560	295	205

To make a booking for this week at short notice email Merryn on bookings@karralika.com.

Free Skiing

If you have purchased a discounted 2013 Freedom Pass (Season Pass) you can also get a free day's skiing for yourself and a friend to the end of then 2012 season. Call 1300 655 811 for more details.

Lost Property

A pair of FCUK glasses have been found in the lodge in one of the upstairs bedrooms. If these may be yours, please email bookings@karralika.com with a description and Merryn will make arrangements to return them.
